

Erissos Fish Farm is offering Internships in Strategy

About us:

Erissos Fish Farm is a boutique family business operating in the aquaculture industry. For more than 20 years we have been conducting our business with respect to the environment and the community and an absolute focus in delivering products of superior quality to our customers. We are a small firm comprised of people passionate about our work and the industry and we are constantly striving for excellence in every aspect of our operations.

Our production site is located at the beautiful island of Kefalonia and our headquarters are in the commercial centre of the city of Patras, Hellas. As primarily an export company, our commercial model is based on building partnerships with a select group of wholesale businesses around the world.

About the internship:

We are offering two positions at the Office of Strategy and Planning for interns who are passionate about Strategic Management.

During the program you will be exposed to numerous strategy problems faced by business in our industry and will provide support in the development and delivery of innovative business solutions. You will need to be a team player with a passion for Strategy who thrives at challenges.

As an intern at the office of strategy you will be based at our modern headquarters in the city of Patras close to all the amenities that the commercial center has to offer.

The interested candidate will need to demonstrate the following minimum qualifications:

- A good academic track record with high grades achieved in strategic management or relevant discipline;
- Exceptional analytical skills and very strong problem solving ability;
- Strong computer skills and significant experience with applications of the MS-Office Suite;
- Strong communication and team work skills;
- Experience with working in teams under tight deadlines;
- High intellectual curiosity and the tendency to challenge conventional thinking;
- A genuine interest in business and a strong understanding of the challenges faced by organisations in our industry;
- A balanced understanding of all principal business functions and an in depth understanding of business strategy; and
- Fluency in both written and spoken Greek and English.

The firm offers:

- Significant learning opportunities via a structured internships program;
- The opportunity to work with experienced strategists on highly challenging projects and to make a significant contribution to the firm; and
- A friendly and highly professional working environment that will help you to foster and develop your skills.
